

Remembering God's Faithfulness

Joshua 4

(MIT) God's faithfulness never changes, despite our failures or the changing situations in our lives

Outline:

- 1. A Reminder to Future Generations (4:1-7, 19-24)
- 2. New Leader, Same God, Same Mission (4:14)

1. A Reminder to future Generations

(Verses 1-7, 19-24)

- The need for a reminder
- Israel's cycle of forgetfulness and sin
- Future generations would know that God is faithful

2. New Leader, Same God, Same Mission

(Verse 14)

- The importance of Land/a covenant to Abraham
- The situation that Israel had just gone through
- A new leader chosen by God

(MIT) God's faithfulness never changes, no matter our failure or current situations in our lives

- Called to the same mission

Next Steps

Questions to think about this week:

1. What do you need reminding of this Thanksgiving?
Or, maybe more importantly, what do you need to remind future generations of this Thanksgiving?
2. Reflect on how God is always there for us. Never leaving us, even when life looks radically different than before
