1. Daniel brought God into his stress when he chose to walk through it.

Dan. 6:10 Now when Daniel knew that the document was signed, he entered his house (now in his roof chamber he had windows open toward Jerusalem); and he continued kneeling on his knees three times a day, praying and giving thanks before his God, as he had been doing previously. (NAU)

2. Daniel practiced a life-long, daily, habit of communing w God. This informed his thoughts, his feelings, and his behaviors.

Dan. 6:10 Now when Daniel knew that the document was signed, he entered his house (now in his roof chamber he had windows open toward Jerusalem); and he continued kneeling on his knees three times a day, praying and giving thanks before his God, as he had been doing previously. (NAU)

3. Daniel's life behaviors revealed and glorified God. He influenced others to their own "valley of decision."

Dan. 6:26 "I make a decree that in all the dominion of my kingdom men are to fear and tremble before the God of Daniel; For He is the living God and enduring forever, And His kingdom is one which will not be destroyed, And His dominion will be forever. (NAU)

Next Step:

1. God is speaking to many of us today: His message – choose to faith him; abandon your fear.
2. Think about how He has proved himself faithful. Focus there.
3. Worship him, daily, as your strength.
